

Fall Adult Programs

September – December 2017

Franklin Lakes Public Library

470 DeKorte Drive

201-891-2224 ♦ www.franklinlakeslibrary.org

Thank you to the Friends of the Franklin Lakes Library for funding many of our adult programs. Because of their generosity we are able to provide excellent programming for our patrons.

Programs may be canceled due to inclement weather. To check the status of a program please call the Library or check the "Emergency Closings" at www.BCCLS.org.

Seating for programs is on a first-come basis unless it is noted that registration is required.

September & October

Writing for Profit: An Overview with M.T. Schwartzman

Sunday, September 10th at 2pm

There's nothing more thrilling for a writer than pitching a story and seeing it in print or online. Find out from a pro how to sell your writing. This program is based on instructor and professional freelance writer M.T. Schwartzman's popular adult school class "Writing for Profit." *No previous publishing experience is required to attend.

Karkowska Sisters Duo present From Chopin to Broadway

Sunday, September 17th at 2pm

From Chopin to Broadway is a program full of unforgettable stories, humor and beloved classical music hits, such as Liszt's "Second Hungarian Rhapsody." The Karkowska Sisters make music come alive with their virtuoso performances and witty repartee. Not to be missed!

Walgreens Flu Shot Clinic at the Library

Wednesday, September 20th 3-5pm
Wednesday, October 4th 3-5pm

Stop by the Library and receive your flu vaccine. Please bring your insurance card and a photo ID. For further questions, please contact Walgreens Pharmacy at 201-891-5373. No appointment is necessary.

Author Talk: Adria Goldman Gross discusses Solved! Curing Your Medical Insurance Problems

Tuesday, September 12th at 7pm

Too often healthcare consumers find that they pay much more than expected and get much less than they bargained for. In these uncertain times, it is difficult to predict what will happen to the healthcare system. Ms. Goldman Gross will show you how to spot overcharges, under reimbursements, inappropriate denials and will discuss other relevant insurance issues.

Barnum Finance presents "What You Need to Know to Hire a Financial Planner"

Thursday, September 21st at 7pm

Ron A. Pac and Ryan Dougherty of Barnum Finance will explain the different types of advisors and brokers within the industry and what the relationship with each type of advisor is like from the client's perspective. This program will empower you to find the best financial planner for you. In addition, the presenters will discuss the types of questions you should be asking your current or future planner.

Franklin Lakes Festival 2017 Saturday, September 23rd * Stop by the Library's booth

Check in at the beginning of each month for details about upcoming computer classes and Friday movie matinees.

September & October

Savvy Social Security Planning for Women presented by Foresters Financial

Thursday, September 28th at 7:30pm

This program will address what women need to know to maximize retirement income, understand Social Security benefits and how to be prepared for what life brings.

The Bride & the Monster: Lightning Strikes Twice!

Sunday, October 8th at 2pm

Don't miss infamous couple, Birdie and Frank N. Stein as they bring you up to speed on married life since their days in the castle. Kate and Richard Butler portray the new and improved Mr. & Mrs. Stein in a hilarious performance as they reinvent themselves in a comedy with themes all modern married couples know so well!

Masterwork Conversations Pianists Matthew Harrison and Vlada Yaneva present Night in the Garden of Spain

Sunday, October 15th at 2pm

The Iberian Peninsula is an evocative land whose lush beauty has compelled musicians to sing, clap, stomp, dance, strum and play the piano. Great Spanish and (even some French) composers strove to capture the allure of Spain in their works. Join us for a musical fiesta that will make you want to shout "Olé!"

Franklin Lakes Library Knitting Circle with Susan Leibowitz

Thursdays, 10/5, 10/12, 10/19, 10/26, 11/2 and 11/9 at 11am

In a small group setting, you'll have the opportunity to grow your knitting skills and knowledge while gaining confidence and independence.

Guidance, instruction and encouragement will be provided with patience and humor by Susan Leibowitz, a certified Craft Yarn Council Knit and Crochet Instructor.

**Registration is required and begins on Monday, Sept. 18th. This is not a learn-to-knit program, however, support for all skills will be provided.*

One Fine Tapestry: A Carole King Tribute performed by Gerard and Diane Barros

Sunday, October 22nd at 2pm

Join Gerard and Diane at the Library as they salute the legendary singer/songwriter and cover several of her great solo hits as well as classics she wrote for other well-known artists.

Friday Morning Book Club at 10am

All are welcome to attend this monthly book club which meets in the Local History Room on the 3rd Friday of each month. Books are available at the Circulation Desk.

November & December

Emotional Freedom Techniques (EFT) Tapping with Melissa Canter

Thursday, November 2nd at 7pm

EFT Tapping works to rewire the brain and bring body and mind into balance. A form of psychological acupressure, EFT Tapping has been shown to reduce stress, ease physical pain and much more. Melissa Canter holds an MBA and is a certified yoga instructor and relaxation expert.

Comedian Marion Oxenhorn the LaffLady

Sunday, November 12th at 2pm

Marion Oxenhorn is a grandmother from Morris Plains and the winner of the Gilda's Club Laugh-Off comedy contest. Marion blends topical humor with wry observations about domestic life. At an age when most are retiring, Marion is making people laugh!

Franklin Lakes Annual Holiday Tree Lighting

Wednesday, December 6th at 7pm

Come to the Library following the Annual Tree Lighting at Borough Hall for some hot chocolate and refreshments. As a special holiday treat, the Village Carolers will be performing Victorian holiday carols.

Actions Critical to Writing Your Own Success Story with Mitchell Milch

Monday, November 6th at 7pm

Mitchell Milch, a psychotherapist and marathoner, will discuss how writing a memoir helped him achieve his goals and break through personal barriers. Mr. Milch is the author of Do I Still Need My Head Examined or Just a New Pair of Running Shoes?

Sing in the Season with the Belle Tones

Sunday, December 3rd at 2pm

The Belle Tones, often called the 21st Century Andrews Sisters, will present a program with all the traditional and popular tunes from yesteryear to get you in the holiday spirit.

Jersey Jubilation Handbell Choir Holiday Concert

Sunday, December 10th at 2pm

The Jersey Jubilation Handbell Choir (JJHC), led by Christine L. Braden, will present an exceptional musical event to celebrate the beauty of the season with 5 octaves of handbells and chimes.

Library Hours:

Monday-Thursday: 10am - 9pm

Friday: 10am - 6pm

Saturday: 10am - 5pm

Sunday: 1pm - 5pm